Tomorrow, Thursday, April 16th is the end of quarter. Any work that has been submitted will be added to their grade and report cards will be mailed to you. Conferences will still take place virtually on Wednesday, April 22nd. A link will be sent out to sign up at a later date. This Friday, April 17th is a School Improvement Day, so teachers will not be available. We will resume Remote Learning on Monday, April 20th.

Bret Harte is no longer a food distribution site. However, you can still pick up meals at: Bronzeville Classical, Burke, Doolittle, Hendricks, Ray, Wadsworth, and Till.

Technology distribution has been going well. We still have some spots available April 20th. You will be provided with an ipad or Chromebook, charger, and instructions for care. We are limited on the number of devices we have to loan out, so please only sign up if you are without. We ask that you come during your time to support social distancing. To sign-up, please use the link: directory.bookedin.com/bret-harte-elementary-4

Attention choir students: CCC has a Student Resource page: <https://ccchoir.org/student-resources/> This website features a number of music learning activities and resources.

You can stay connected with us through DOJO, Email, and many classrooms are now launching Google Classroom. If you need help logging into CPS email, please contact Ms. Dawkins at kpdawkins@cps.edu or Mrs. Fido at mmfido1@cps.edu for assistance with ClassDOJO. All students in grades PreK through 8th grade who are not connected to ClassDOJO should have received an invitation with class code, so please check your email. You can also request to be added to the classroom without a code by clicking on the link: Class Dojo Parent Sign Up . Be sure to select Bret Harte Elementary (the entire name).

We appreciate your support and patience during this unprecedented time. We will continue to provide the best opportunities possible for your children with the support of you and our outstanding teachers.
